

That one partisan point of view can be expressed over 60 TV stations in support of a particular candidate for the presidency of our country is a threat to the democratic process we try to promote across the globe. To use the public airways for this purpose is a violation of the inherent trust in fairness that should be a requirement for every agent granted a TV license.